

The global portal to the UN procurement

For further guidance

A UNGM Interactive Guide is available to assist you in:

- Getting familiar with UN practices
- Registering your company on UNGM
- Submitting your UNGM application to become a registered potential supplier
- Subscribing to the Tender Alert Service

United Nations Global Marketplace

registry@ungm.org
www.ungm.org

United Nations Global Marketplace

Becoming a potential supplier to the UN agencies

Step 1:

Register on www.ungm.org, the UN global procurement website

- UNGM is an excellent springboard to introduce your goods and services to UN agencies by completing only one common online Registration Form
- As soon as a potential supplier's registration has been accepted by one UN agency, it becomes part of the UNGM database. More than 2,500 UN procurement staff use this database to find new suppliers
- Access business opportunities with the UN published by more than 33 UN entities

"18 UN agencies maintain a roster on UNGM. They represent 95 percent of the total UN procurement spend"

Step 2:

Receive relevant tender notices by email

- Online and easy subscription to the Tender Alert Service on www.ungm.org
- Companies can automatically receive relevant business opportunities according to their products/ services
- Companies are emailed about tender notices as they are published
- Annual subscription = $250
- A UNGM Interactive Guide is available on www.ungm.org to guide potential suppliers to subscribe to this valuable service

"225 active tender notices available on UNGM at any one time"

Objectives & purposes of UNGM:

- To provide a global portal to the UN procurement and a UN system wide supplier database
- Easy online registration process for potential suppliers
- To feature tender notices & contract awards
- Increased transparency and harmonization of procurement practices
- Increased procurement opportunities for vendors from developing countries and countries with economies in transition

"1,000 new companies register each month"